Often asked, but solders answered satisfactorily: "Is there a remedy known to the medical profession that will aliay the sufferings peculiar to women who are subject to Dysamovrhou and its extendant discomfarts." COLORS There is relief for you; it has been found in Johnson the subject: "I have derived particularly gratifying results from the use of Tonguline in cases of Dymanorrhou. In the case of a lady of risonmatic condition, and a chronic sufferer from this disease, who had been driven almost to the verge of insanity by her wouthly suffering, its action has been must satisfactory. It relieved her presuptly, and she now passes the once dreaded particular has been most satisfactory. It relieved that the subject is a subject of the property of insanity by her wouthly suffering, its action has been most satisfactory. It relieved her presuptly, and she now passes the once dreaded particular but little discomfort. I could mention other instances of a similar character, but this is a remarkable case." T.F.
